SPEAKERS

Homer & Lois Smuck

Homer was born in Booker, Texas and lived there until he was ten, when the Smuck family moved to Northbranch, Kansas. He graduated from Burr Oak High School and enrolled at Friends Bible College.

Lois Harris was born in Aberdeen, Washington and was reared in Portland, Oregon and Greenleaf, Idaho. She graduated from Greenleaf Friends Academy and enrolled at Friends Bible College two years after Homer did.

They married in Greenleaf in July of 1972. Their first pastorate was in Miami, Oklahoma. Next, they took the pastorate in Nampa, Idaho. From there they planted a church in McCall, Idaho. They pastored at the Friends Church in Talent, Oregon.

From Oregon they journeyed back to Mid America Yearly Meeting near Alton, Kansas to pastor Mt Ayr

Friends church for 10 years and then to Chandler, Oklahoma. They returned to Mt Ayr for 9 more years from where they retired and moved to the Wichita area, living near Sedgwick.

Homer and Lois are both Recorded Pastors. Lois has had the opportunity to speak to many groups, including the Friends Women's Retreat in 2008.

They are the parents of Jeremy (Betty) Smuck, Jannea Alonso and Jacque (Bryan) Penrose, who have given them eight grandchildren from age 20 to 1 year. They attend Hutchinson Friends Church.

Some of their fun activities together have been traveling around the country, acting in Community Theater and making life-long friends in their pastorates.
