

EVANGELICAL FRIENDS CHURCH • MID AMERICA

W H O L E C H U R C H . W H O L E G O S P E L . W H O L E W O R L D

APPRENTICESHIP I

“Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ” (1 Corinthians 11:1).

Recording Supervisor: David O. Williams, DMin, Lead Superintendent

Office Phone: 316-267-0391

Cell Phone: 316.249.4278

Fax: 316-267-0681

Email: dwilliams@efcmaym.org

Apprenticeship Description

Recording candidates will meet regularly with a ministry mentor in order to receive supervision, support, and spiritual direction to assist them on their journey with Jesus.

Apprenticeship Objectives

Upon completion of this apprenticeship, each recording candidate will be able to ...

- Engage in meaningful conversations with a sacred companion as a means of stimulating increased awareness of one's personal and professional development.
- Participate in soul-training exercises designed to supplement and support vocational ministry by cultivating an intentional integration of formation and mission.
- Formulate a sustainable strategy for personal and professional growth.
- Establish a personal pathway towards biblical and theological proficiency.

Assigned Reading

- Nickalls, John (editor). The Journal of George Fox. Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 2005.
- Smith, James Bryan. The Good and Beautiful God. InterVarsity Press, 2009.

Additional Assignments

1. Recording candidates will meet monthly with a ministry mentor in a synchronous format (face-to-face, Skype, Face Time, etc.) to share life together, both personally and professionally, using assigned reading as a basic training manual.
2. Recording candidates will keep a journal throughout the Apprenticeship, recording any significant insights, observations, concerns or questions that surface during the process. The format and frequency of these journal entries may vary, but candidates should make at least one dated entry per month.
3. Recording candidates will submit a 2-3 page reflection paper to their ministry mentor upon completion of each stage in the apprenticeship. This paper should include a clear and concise summary of the candidate's personal growth, professional development and progress towards biblical/theological proficiency.

PROGRESS REPORT: APPRENTICESHIP I

Candidate: _____ Mentor/Partner: _____

*Ministry Mentors/Partners: Please use this form to record your observations of your partner's personal and professional development throughout the most recent stage of the Apprenticeship. Please email a completed copy of this Progress Report to the Lead Superintendent (dwilliams@efcmaym.org) as a Microsoft Word or PDF attachment at your earliest convenience.

- Did you meet at least once a month with the candidate in a synchronous format?
- Did the candidate make regular entries in his/her journal (at least once a month)?
- Did you and the candidate read and discuss the assigned reading together?
- Did the candidate complete and submit to you a 2-3 page reflection paper?
- In what ways were you able to observe significant growth in this candidate's life?
- In what areas did you observe the need for additional growth in this candidate's life?
- Are there any additional commendations that you would want to offer this candidate (words of encouragement or affirmation)?
- Are there any additional recommendations that you would want to offer this candidate (words of exhortation or admonition)?

Thanks so much for your personal investment in the lives of our recording candidates!

"God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them" (Hebrews 6:10).

EVANGELICAL FRIENDS CHURCH • MID AMERICA

W H O L E C H U R C H . W H O L E G O S P E L . W H O L E W O R L D

APPRENTICESHIP II

“Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ” (1 Corinthians 11:1).

Recording Supervisor: David O. Williams, DMin, Lead Superintendent

Office Phone: 316-267-0391

Cell Phone: 316.249.4278

Fax: 316-267-0681

Email: dwilliams@efcmaym.org

Apprenticeship Description

Recording candidates will meet regularly with a ministry mentor in order to receive supervision, support, and spiritual direction to assist them on their journey with Jesus.

Apprenticeship Objectives

Upon completion of this apprenticeship, each recording candidate will be able to ...

- Engage in meaningful conversations with a sacred companion as a means of stimulating increased awareness of one’s personal and professional development.
- Participate in soul-training exercises designed to supplement and support vocational ministry by cultivating an intentional integration of formation and mission.
- Formulate a sustainable strategy for personal and professional growth.
- Establish a personal pathway towards biblical and theological proficiency.

Assigned Reading

- Freiday, Dean (editor). Barclay’s Apology in Modern English. Barclay Press, 2000.
- Smith, James Bryan. The Good and Beautiful Life. InterVarsity Press, 2009.

Additional Assignments

1. Recording candidates will meet monthly with a ministry mentor in a synchronous format (face-to-face, Skype, Face Time, etc.) to share life together, both personally and professionally, using assigned reading as a basic training manual.
2. Recording candidates will keep a journal throughout the Apprenticeship, recording any significant insights, observations, concerns or questions that surface during the process. The format and frequency of these journal entries may vary, but candidates should make at least one dated entry per month.
3. Recording candidates will submit a 2-3 page reflection paper to their ministry mentor upon completion of each stage in the apprenticeship. This paper should include a clear and concise summary of the candidate’s personal growth, professional development and progress towards biblical/theological proficiency.

PROGRESS REPORT: APPRENTICESHIP II

Candidate: _____ Mentor/Partner: _____

*Ministry Mentors/Partners: Please use this form to record your observations of your partner's personal and professional development throughout the most recent stage of the Apprenticeship. Please email a completed copy of this Progress Report to the Lead Superintendent (dwilliams@efcmaym.org) as a Microsoft Word or PDF attachment at your earliest convenience.

- Did you meet at least once a month with the candidate in a synchronous format?
- Did the candidate make regular entries in his/her journal (at least once a month)?
- Did you and the candidate read and discuss the assigned reading together?
- Did the candidate complete and submit to you a 2-3 page reflection paper?
- In what ways were you able to observe significant growth in this candidate's life?
- In what areas did you observe the need for additional growth in this candidate's life?
- Are there any additional commendations that you would want to offer this candidate (words of encouragement or affirmation)?
- Are there any additional recommendations that you would want to offer this candidate (words of exhortation or admonition)?

Thanks so much for your personal investment in the lives of our recording candidates!

"God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them" (Hebrews 6:10).

EVANGELICAL FRIENDS CHURCH • MID AMERICA

W H O L E C H U R C H . W H O L E G O S P E L . W H O L E W O R L D

APPRENTICESHIP III

“Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ” (1 Corinthians 11:1).

Recording Supervisor: David O. Williams, DMin, Lead Superintendent

Office Phone: 316-267-0391

Cell Phone: 316.249.4278

Fax: 316-267-0681

Email: dwilliams@efcmaym.org

Apprenticeship Description

Recording candidates will meet regularly with a ministry mentor in order to receive supervision, support, and spiritual direction to assist them on their journey with Jesus.

Apprenticeship Objectives

Upon completion of this apprenticeship, each recording candidate will be able to ...

- Engage in meaningful conversations with a sacred companion as a means of stimulating increased awareness of one’s personal and professional development.
- Participate in soul-training exercises designed to supplement and support vocational ministry by cultivating an intentional integration of formation and mission.
- Formulate a sustainable strategy for personal and professional growth.
- Establish a personal pathway towards biblical and theological proficiency.

Assigned Reading

- Smith, James Bryan. The Good and Beautiful Community. InterVarsity Press, 2010.
- Williams, Walter R. The Rich Heritage of Quakerism. Barclay Press, 2006.

Additional Assignments

1. Recording candidates will meet monthly with a ministry mentor in a synchronous format (face-to-face, Skype, Face Time, etc.) to share life together, both personally and professionally, using assigned reading as a basic training manual.
2. Recording candidates will keep a journal throughout the Apprenticeship, recording any significant insights, observations, concerns or questions that surface during the process. The format and frequency of these journal entries may vary, but candidates should make at least one dated entry per month.
3. Recording candidates will submit a 2-3 page reflection paper to their ministry mentor upon completion of each stage in the apprenticeship. This paper should include a clear and concise summary of the candidate’s personal growth, professional development and progress towards biblical/theological proficiency.

PROGRESS REPORT: APPRENTICESHIP III

Candidate: _____ Mentor/Partner: _____

*Ministry Mentors/Partners: Please use this form to record your observations of your partner's personal and professional development throughout the most recent stage of the Apprenticeship. Please email a completed copy of this Progress Report to the Lead Superintendent (dwilliams@efcmaym.org) as a Microsoft Word or PDF attachment at your earliest convenience.

- Did you meet at least once a month with the candidate in a synchronous format?
- Did the candidate make regular entries in his/her journal (at least once a month)?
- Did you and the candidate read and discuss the assigned reading together?
- Did the candidate complete and submit to you a 2-3 page reflection paper?
- In what ways were you able to observe significant growth in this candidate's life?
- In what areas did you observe the need for additional growth in this candidate's life?
- Are there any additional commendations that you would want to offer this candidate (words of encouragement or affirmation)?
- Are there any additional recommendations that you would want to offer this candidate (words of exhortation or admonition)?

Thanks so much for your personal investment in the lives of our recording candidates!

"God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them" (Hebrews 6:10).

EVANGELICAL FRIENDS CHURCH • MID AMERICA

W H O L E C H U R C H . W H O L E G O S P E L . W H O L E W O R L D

APPRENTICESHIP IV

“Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ” (1 Corinthians 11:1).

Recording Supervisor: David O. Williams, DMin, Lead Superintendent

Office Phone: 316-267-0391

Cell Phone: 316.249.4278

Fax: 316-267-0681

Email: dwilliams@efcmaym.org

Apprenticeship Description

Recording candidates will meet regularly with a ministry mentor in order to receive supervision, support, and spiritual direction to assist them on their journey with Jesus.

Apprenticeship Objectives

Upon completion of this apprenticeship, each recording candidate will be able to ...

- Engage in meaningful conversations with a sacred companion as a means of stimulating increased awareness of one's personal and professional development.
- Participate in soul-training exercises designed to supplement and support vocational ministry by cultivating an intentional integration of formation and mission.
- Formulate a sustainable strategy for personal and professional growth.
- Establish a personal pathway towards biblical and theological proficiency.

Assigned Reading

- Anderson, Paul. Following Jesus. Barclay Press, 2013.
- Williams, David O. Rhythms of Grace. Barclay Press, 2017.

Additional Assignments

1. Recording candidates will meet monthly with a ministry mentor in a synchronous format (face-to-face, Skype, Face Time, etc.) to share life together, both personally and professionally, using assigned reading as a basic training manual.
2. Recording candidates will keep a journal throughout the Apprenticeship, recording any significant insights, observations, concerns or questions that surface during the process. The format and frequency of these journal entries may vary, but candidates should make at least one dated entry per month.
3. Recording candidates will submit a 2-3 page reflection paper to their ministry mentor upon completion of each stage in the apprenticeship. This final paper should include a clear and concise summary of the candidate's statement of faith and personal philosophy of ministry.

PROGRESS REPORT: APPRENTICESHIP IV

Candidate: _____ Mentor/Partner: _____

*Ministry Mentors/Partners: Please use this form to record your observations of your partner's personal and professional development throughout the most recent stage of the Apprenticeship. Please email a completed copy of this Progress Report to the Lead Superintendent (dwilliams@efcmaym.org) as a Microsoft Word or PDF attachment at your earliest convenience.

- Did you meet at least once a month with the candidate in a synchronous format?
- Did the candidate make regular entries in his/her journal (at least once a month)?
- Did you and the candidate read and discuss the assigned reading together?
- Did the candidate complete and submit to you a 2-3 page reflection paper?
- In what ways were you able to observe significant growth in this candidate's life?
- In what areas did you observe the need for additional growth in this candidate's life?
- Are there any additional commendations that you would want to offer this candidate (words of encouragement or affirmation)?
- Are there any additional recommendations that you would want to offer this candidate (words of exhortation or admonition)?

Thanks so much for your personal investment in the lives of our recording candidates!

"God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them" (Hebrews 6:10).