

Meet the Speaker

Dana Poole

I am a devoted mother of three and have joyfully celebrated 31 years of wedded bliss. For two decades, I wholeheartedly dedicated myself to full-time ministry, serving in various capacities within the Christian community. These roles encompassed my involvement with a Christian School, women's ministry, worship leadership, pastoral assistance, and church administration, albeit not concurrently. Presently, I am privileged to be a member of Lost Sheep Ministries. Throughout my journey, I have had the opportunity to embark on impactful mission trips, reaching out to diverse communities such as Nicaragua, Norway, and a women's prison in North Dakota. My passion resides in witnessing women flourish in freedom, fully embracing their God-given potential through a profound relationship with Christ. As a testament to this devotion, I have composed several enlightening Bible studies, three of which are presently available on Amazon: "Walking in Rest," "Fruit of the Spirit," and "Just as I Am."

Meet the Musician

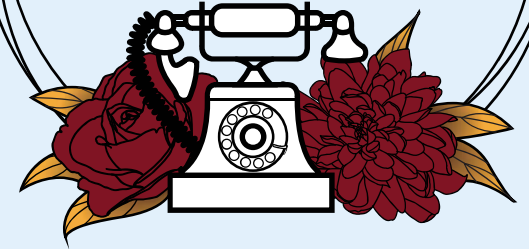

Caleb Coffey

Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord;
let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song.
Psalm 95:1-2

With a remarkable tenure of over a decade, he has dedicated himself to the noble pursuit of worship leadership. Caleb's unwavering passion lies in guiding fellow believers toward the profound experience of being enveloped in the presence of our benevolent and compassionate God.

Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know
