

Newberg Friends Church: Pastor of Transformation & Discipleship

Are you a passionate and visionary leader with a heart for nurturing spiritual transformation and discipleship within a vibrant faith community? Do you enjoy rolling up your sleeves with a group of people to envision and implement a plan? Newberg Friends Church is seeking a pastor to join our team who will oversee and participate in furthering its vision to ignite a powerful journey of spiritual growth and maturation for our congregation. Join us as we cultivate a deep love for God and His Word as well as equip and empower believers to live out God's love through care and service for others.

Key Opportunities:

Dynamic Community: Join a vibrant community of faith that is committed to spiritual growth, discipleship, and making a lasting impact on the lives of others. Develop and implement impactful discipleship programs and opportunities.

Empowering Ministry: Demonstrate servant leadership which encourages creativity, innovation, the application of strategic thinking, and equipping of others to further the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Collaborative Environment: Provide vision and big picture oversight for a dedicated pastoral team, church staff and volunteers, including many George Fox University former and current faculty who are passionate about serving and making a difference in the lives of others.

Resources: There is an opportunity to develop and implement ideas which maximize the missional use of NFCs large campus, which is one of the central hubs for the Northwest yearly meeting. Significant assets including a library, friends center & gymnasium, several rental properties and large rooms for fellowship and teaching.

Strong Ties: Newberg Friends has deep connections with George Fox University and the Northwest Yearly Meeting. Many of the GFU faculty frequently preach and teach at Newberg Friends. The ideal candidate for this role would have a passion and ability to develop closer ties with George Fox University faculty, students, other NWYM churches as well as with the Newberg community.

Spiritual Requirements

- Be a Bible believing committed Christ-follower with a lifestyle and reputation of Christian faithfulness.
- Be in agreement with the Northwest Yearly Meeting Faith and Practice.
- Have a strong calling to leadership, spiritual formation, development, and mobilizing of Christians.
- Have a high level of self-awareness and be committed to continual relational growth.

- Demonstrate Christ-centered living (1 Peter 1:15-16, 1 Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:5-9), Honesty, confidence, teachability, and humility (Philippians 2:5-7), and Patience and commitment in working with others (James 1:4)

If you are a passionate and visionary leader who is excited about the opportunity to make a significant impact on the lives of individuals within our community, we encourage you to apply. Join us as we embark on a transformative journey of spiritual growth, discipleship, and community engagement.

Part-time FSLA non-exempt or full-time exempt (20-40 hours)